

physical and emotional wellness through creativity, music, and community.

This no-cost opportunity is open to children, adults, and families who are grieving the death of someone in their life. Parents and caregivers must remain onsite.

This camp will provide unique opportunities that include:

- Drumming: Josh Robinson, a nationally-renowned percussionist and drum facilitator, offers drumming activities that serve as channels for self-expression and emotional release. In this interactive session, participants will craft their own memorial drum and take part in a range of drumming activities.
- Ranch Experience: Explore the beautiful grounds of Reining Liberty Ranch, engage with the animals, and play yard games! Dinner will be provided.

Location: Reining Liberty Ranch, 4656 Silver Pines Rd, Traverse City, MI 49685
